

submissions

Frogpond Submission Guidelines

Jacob D. Salzer, Managing Editor
905 SE 136th Ave, APT #F2
Vancouver, WA 98683

Email: <frogpondeditor@gmail.com>

1. Members and non-members of the Haiku Society of America are eligible to submit. By submitting, you acknowledge all work is original, unpublished, and not under consideration elsewhere. We consider poems on the internet (e.g., Facebook, Twitter, blogs) to be previously published. Simultaneous submissions will not be accepted.

Submission Periods: There are three issues of Frogpond each year with month-long submission reading periods per issue—March for the spring/summer issue, July for the autumn issue, and November for the winter issue. Acceptances will be sent within 4-6 weeks after the submission period. All submissions sent during our reading periods will receive a reply one way or the other. Haiku/senryu, rengay, linked-forms, and haibun submissions sent outside of our reading periods will not be read or considered for publication.

2. Submissions: Frogpond will accept a submission of up to eight (8) haiku & senryu through the Google Form link below during the following submission periods: March, July, and November. During months outside of the submission periods, this link will be turned off.

Haiku & Senryu Frogpond Google Form: (for March 2023)

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSenyshgYHhIQGv-vOFddJSMfO9gTJRExNxsSPI-ic-VaRV0PA/viewform?usp=sf_link

In addition, your submission can include: up to three (3) haibun, up to three (3) rengay or other short sequences (including alternate forms of rengay and split sequences), and one (1) renku sent by email. In addition, if any of your up to eight (8) haiku/senryu require special formatting (such as concrete haiku or italicized text) those can be submitted by email as well. You may submit any or all these forms as part of your single e-mail submission.

Frogpond can accept submissions via e-mail (no attachments), and submissions should be sent to: <frogpondeditor@gmail.com> with the subject line: Frogpond Submission.

Please make sure to include both your first and last name as you wish it to appear in print, as well as your place of residence (city, state abbreviation) in the body of your email (for our author index). If you live outside the U.S., please also include your country name.

3. Essays & Articles: Essays and articles can be sent at any time to: <frogpondeditor@gmail.com> with the subject line: Frogpond Submission: Essay or Frogpond Submission: Article

4. Book Reviews: HSA members can send their books to request a book review at any time. HSA members who are editors can also send their anthologies to request a book review at any time. Ebooks are not accepted and will not be reviewed.

The following book information should be sent (preferably by email) to:
<frogpondeditor@gmail.com> with the subject line: Request for Book Review

- A) Book Title
- B) Your Name and role (Author or Editor)
- C) A brief book description
- D) Where readers can buy the book
- E) Book Price

Books for review should be mailed to:

Jacob D. Salzer, Managing Editor
905 SE 136th Ave, APT #F2
Vancouver, WA 98683

5. Submissions of original drawings should be emailed to: <frogpondeditor@gmail.com> with the subject heading: Frogpond Drawing - Your Name

Contact:

Jacob D. Salzer, Managing Editor
Email: <frogpondeditor@gmail.com>

Thank you for your interest in Frogpond.